"Welcome to Isabelle Royale Hotel and Suites, the newest addition of business hotels operating in the Makati Commercial Business District. Originally developed as a residential condominium, Isabelle Royale is an 11-storey condominium with about 100 units. Completed and sold out in 2005, almost half of the buyers of Isabelle Royale are Filipinos living abroad. Considering the location of Isabelle Royale and the demand for affordable accommodations for business travelers and tourists, its developer, Techno-Asia Construction and Development, Inc, has decided to convert the unoccupied units into hotel accommodations. Techno-Asia has started fitting out the said units with suitable beddings, furniture and appliances to ensure comfort and convenience to guests."

Isabelle Royale Hotel & Suites Guest Reviews

:-) "A great place to stay! - I booked a room here online and got a response within a day. I reserved an Executive Studio for 1,500 pesos only for a night to stay as I need a place to stay in Manila which is near the airport as we have a plane to catch the next day. The room is great, clean, big with dining table..." Guest review from www.tripadvisor.com

*:-) "Full Review - Background: This is my first time staying in Isabelle Royale. I stayed here for 3 days and 2 nights for leisure. I got the standard room for PhP 1,500. The room was on the 2nd floor. Cleanliness (2 stars) The room itself is not bad. It doesn't look as old as other hotels in the same area. However, the main..." :-) "Affordable studio-type hotel in Makati - Executive studio (good for two persons) costs only P1,500 per night. As the name implies, the room comes with a kitchen (not sure they will provide the cooking utensil/plates or not), a toilet (just a hot/cold shower, which is sufficient) and bed area (with window). The bed area is quite small and it would be very difficult to move around..." Guest review from www.tripadvisor.com

*:-) "I would not really care to stay there again - But if I had to, I would. It was in a business district. There was not any restaurants any where, or anything other than tall business buildings. The street was difficult to find. It was an old hotel. there was nothing of interest anywhere near by..." :-) "Basic hotel on quiet end of Burgos - Basic and reasonably priced hotel on the quiet end of Burgos Street. Rooms are simple and basic but decent value for the price - 1800p. There is a kitchenette but no kitchenware or utensils provided. Also the floor was a bit dirty and our feet got black soles. Best thing about the hotel is that it is walking distance to many bars and restaurants but it is still pretty quiet. We had room on 5th floor with balcony overlooking the main road and noise was not a problem..." Guest review from www.agoda.com

*:-) "Travelling effect - I am a world traveller, as I work for an airline, I have been to the greatest hotels and to the obscure hotels, This hotel ranks in the bottom half of the scale of ten. But if you are looking for cheap stay with some better accommodations, then this hotel is for you. The staff was friendly and helpful as I asked for restuarants nearby, a nice currency exchange center and shopping..In the end because of necessities, it was good for the travel needs I had at this time..."
