Parking Space

One of the most often overlooked features of hotels is parking. Many travelers overlook this seemingly minor, but often important detail when planning their travels. However, this can make a trip more challenging whether traveling for business or for a get-away. In Makati City most guest accommodations provide plenty of parking for guests, to making getting around the city easier and to keep cars convenient for the day's activities. Hotels in the city work hard to make sure you have easy access to your vehicle and that parking is done in an orderly fashion.
